

Journeys to the Edge Adventure and Inspiration in One Tidy Package

Dr. Randall L. Peeters, of Foresthill, has chronicled his life in his autobiography/anthology entitled Journeys to the Edge. This book full of entertaining and educational stories takes can do amazing things they never thought possible. He puts the reader in the middle of his athletic achievements and reveals how they can get the most out of life. His no-nonsense and simple approach helps others to do just that.

This book demonstrates by example why CEOs from around the world invite him to speak and instruct on the basics of a successful career and a rewarding lifestyle. Readers will learn from Randy Peeters how to experience a life with no regrets.

Randy is available for speaking engagements around the world. Be inspired, educated and invigorated by his captivating stories of going to the far corners of the world.

About the Author

Dr. Randall L. Peeters was born in San Bernardino, California in 1945, the son of Louis and Suzanne Peeters. His first book, Journeys to the Edge, was published by Sastrugi Press in October 2014. After earning his PhD degree in Aeronautics and Astronautics, he began a distinguished career in the aerospace industry which spanned a total of more than 40 years. He has held management positions that included responsibility for over one thousand technical employees. He was the eighth person in the world to climb the highest point on each continent and reach both the North and South Poles. Dr. Peeters lives in Foresthill, California with his wife, Doris, and regularly travels the world in search of new adventures.

the reader from his humble beginnings to a distinguished career in rocket science, along with documented high levels of expertise in numerous extreme sports. It takes the reader beyond the satisfaction of a quest and into the realm of living life to the fullest.

Dare to dream ... With a vision and perseverance anything is possible. Journeys to the Edge shows how Randy balanced a successful career in the aerospace industry and achieved numerous goals in extreme sports. Born into a middle class family, Randy earned his PhD in Aeronautics and Astronautics from the University of Washington. While managing groups of over one thousand employees, Dr. Peeters achieved unbelievable feats including climbing the Seven Summits and reaching both the North and South Poles. In doing so, he became the eighth person in the world to complete the Adventure Grand Slam.

He guides readers through thinking about achieving their wildest dreams. Randy shares how an ordinary person